TASTE THE RDM DIFFERENCE

Simple, traditional, lovingly prepared, and utterly authentic.

The step from Calabria, Italy to Sydney, Australia is a surprisingly small step in kitchen miles. The recipes passed through generations are the same and cooking isn't just something Italians do to survive; it's a way of life.

We're proud of the things that set us apart. From our hands-on approach, national distribution network, expert teams, and authentic products to the strong relationships we hold with our customers.

The RDM way has a strong emphasis on quality, consistency, love and care and this is apparent in our products, innovation, and support to our customers. Our passion is delivering on the combined quality and consistency that is now synonymous with the RDM brand.
